The Other Side by House Republican Leader Gary Nelson

Now, in the fifth week of Washington's 48th Legislative Session, the Democrat Majority has finally taken action on two of the most important issues before the Legislature.

Last week, during late night sessions, after the public and most of the members of the House of Representatives had gone home, the new majority approved a stopgap budget and brought out a tax increase proposal that is the largest in state history.

With the midnight oil burning, we got a revealing glimpse of the leaders who will write public policy for the next two years. In back-to-back committee sessions held in the dead of night, House Democrats recommended that we slash funding for a successful economic development package, then turned around and hit the people of this state with over $1 billion in new taxes.

And we will pay dearly. The sales tax increases alone will drain an additional $558 per year from a family of four. Through the next four months, ours will be the highest food tax in the nation and the B&O taxes approved in the legislative majority's midnight express were equivalent to a 15 percent corporate income tax -- also the highest rate in the nation

The majority has finally taken on issues important to the state's taxpayers, the unemployed, the small businessmen, those in need. They've approved record spending increases without establishing why they need the money. We've been given a glimpse of what kind of policies will guide us during the next two years.

Minority Women Reaching Out

Black women in America have always been in the forefront of the struggle for freedom, equality and justice. They have stood steadfastly behind and supported their men, helping them to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles. However, in many instances, these courageous women were not content to remain in the background. They began to organize and forged ahead in pursuit of a "dream" - and surpassed all previous efforts to achieve the goal of a "free people."

Long before the Emancipation Proclamation, our women made their voices heard loud and clear as they involved themselves progressively with freedom's struggle. Their incredible ability to organize is unmatched in the annals of American history. This is evidenced by the many prominent and prestigious black national women's organizations flourishing in the country today. No male counterpart can match their number or their dedication and determination.

The fervor which led to their foundings has not diminished with the years. Many of them are more powerful and influential than at any time in their illustrous history - as they REACH OUT into other areas affecting the growth and development of Black America.

An Independent View from Capitol Hill

STATE OF THE UNION ANALYSIS:
OUR ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL CRISIS (PART II)

BY HON. GUS SAVAGE
First Black journalist ever elected to Congress

As I concluded last week, mere "bandages," no matter how big, can no longer heal the systemic ailment with which our once robust nation is now afflicted. As I stated in criticizing Reagan's first State of the Union address in 1981 our system of production wrongly requires the short-term maximization of private profit and investment, which promotes an ever greater concentration of ownership of the means of production. This is counter-productive and indirectly breeds increasing inhumanity and a need for ever greater military power.

This breeds inhumanity because the short-term need for maximizing profits limits business, expenditures for longterm research and development for greater productivity; but necessitates creating the capacity to produce more than can be sold at maximum profit, with ever fewer employees than people who need jobs.

Greater military power is required because this contradiction results in sharpening the conflict between the economies of nations and greatly aggravates peoples' naturally growing intolerance of their relatively increasing economic, social and cultural malnutrition.

The President, as well as Congress, should treat our system, not merely the symptoms. We can no longer rely on individual greed to meet our collective need. More co-operation rather than competition must be engendered in our psyche; and more national economic planning and humane government responsibility are necessary, now! The President should prescribe a different medicine -- not merely an increase or decrease in our dosage of the same.

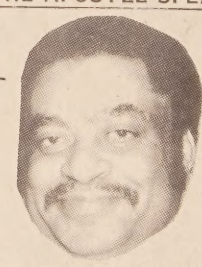
THE APOSTLE SPEAKS



THE NATURAL LIKENESS OF THE FIRST CHIEF APOSTAL SERIES #1 PART 1

Was he like the pictures that you see printed on thousands of Christian literature? Portraying one that was very close to Jesus, pictures that we see have a European likeness, white in color with long beard & long hair with nothing to portray his Jewish Ancestors, whom originated and multiplied into a great nation while in Egypt which is on the continent of Africa.

Being very hot and due to a dark Tribal inheritance, was he not Jesus formost companion, while traveling throughout the Holy Land?

It was Peter that Jesus spoke to and said, upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it.

Has Satan presented an unnatural Likeness of Peter the Chief Apostal? It was Peter who took the initiative at different times while under the training of our Lord. He was aggressive, active, and forceful.

Was not this the same Peter that was with Barnabas at the Church at Antioch? It was the first Christian Church that was set in order was not this the Peter which was called Sim-eon and also Ni-ger which in Latin meaning Black.

Scripture support (Acts 13 Chapter Verse #1.

Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Sim-eon that was called Ni-ger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with (the foster brother of) Herod the Tetrarch and Saul.

Was not his Natural Likeness as it was called Niger which means Black in Latin, was that his natural Likeness? From the Desk of the PUB. Bishop D.L. Brooks, DDW. Cont. next wk.

BOOK OF JOB
Chapter 1

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and aschewed evil.

And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

Then Satan answered the Lord, and said Doth Job fear God for nought

Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house,

"balance your family budget and make it easier for you to pay your utility bills."

You may find household budgeting easier with smaller monthly utility payments rather than larger bi-monthly payments. If you do, the Department of Public Utilities' BUDGET PAYMENT PLAN is for you.

You pay the same amount for 11 months, based on your billing history with the Department. The twelfth month is used to adjust your account based on actual meter readings.

We'll be glad to calculate your monthly budget payment for you before you decide whether to sign up for this service.
